

SESSION CODE OF CONDUCT

April 2015

Sport in Mind promotes positive sport and physical activity experiences for everyone. To that end, the following code of conduct applies to EVERYONE involved in our sessions and events (participants, spectators, support staff, volunteers and coaches).

Participants, spectators, staff, volunteers and coaches must not:

1. Tell discriminatory jokes, use name calling or make any remarks on grounds of race, gender, sexuality, disability or age.
2. Use any aggressive, threatening or inappropriate behaviour.
3. Possess or consume illegal substances at the sessions.
4. Possess or consume alcohol at the sessions.
5. Access sessions whilst under the influence of alcohol or illicit drugs.
6. Use physical violence under any circumstances.

Failure to abide by Sport in Mind's code of conduct will result in expulsion from the session, and possible long-term ban.

Disciplinary action will be decided by the Board of Trustees.
